Furthermore, the Governor announced plans to delay the Food4All 55+ expansion to 2027 despite rising food costs and the

	pressing need for food access in our communities. Now, the Food4All coalition is urging Governor Newsom to prioritize Food4All for ALL ages under 55 in this year's budget to urgently address the ongoing devastating food insecurity and income inequality impacting our communities. This is a critical moment for our campaign. Over the next few days, our response to the January budget will set the stage for the remainder of our budget advocacy this year. We need to make it loud and clear to the Governor and other elected officials in Sacramento that Food4All should be one of their top priorities. Please join us in taking action to amplify our response to the Governor's January budget by sharing the sample social media messages and graphics contained in the Food4All Social Media Toolkit (Spanish translation included).
