

Wellness Policy Attribute: Oral Health

District	BP/AR (Year)	Page	Language
1. Bonsall	BP (2018)	3	Encourage all students to obtain an oral health screening from a dental professional prior to entering kindergarten or first grade and learn about and practice good dental health care.
2. Borrego Springs	BP (2017)	4	The DWC membership will represent all school levels and include (to the extent possible), but not be limited to: parents and caregivers; students; representatives of the school nutrition program (e.g., school nutrition director); physical education teachers; health education teachers; school health professionals (e.g., health education teachers, school health services staff [e.g., nurses, physicians, dentists , health educators, and other allied health personnel who provide school health services]).
3. Cardiff	BP (2022)	4	Encourage all parents to obtain an oral health screening for their child from a dental professional prior to entering kindergarten or first grade and learn about and practice good dental health care.
4. Carlsbad	BP (2017)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
5. Del Mar		1 7	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health. C. Meal Times and Scheduling Schools should take reasonable steps to accommodate the tooth-brushing regimens of students with special oral health needs (e.g., orthodontia or high tooth decay risk).
6. Escondido Union	BP (2018)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
7. Escondido HS	BP (2019)	2	The nutrition education program will include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
8. Grossmont	BP (2019)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
9. Jamul-Dulzura	BP (2018)	2	The nutrition education program will include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
10. Julian Union	BP (2019)	18	Julian Pathways, Inc. student and family resource center will appraise, protect, and promote student and staff health by fostering access to appropriate primary health care services designed to ensure access or referral to primary health care and prevention services, and foster appropriate use of primary health care services, including oral health. Qualified professionals such as physicians, nurses, dentists, health educators, and other health personnel shall provide these services.

11. Julian Union High	BP (2017)	2 8	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health. Meal Times and Scheduling <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take reasonable steps to accommodate the tooth-brushing regimens of students with special oral health needs
12. La Mesa-Spring Valley	BP (2017)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
13. Lemon Grove	BP (2018)	10	Nutrition Education Nutrition education shall include but not be limited to information on the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management and oral health.
14. Mt. Empire	BP (2017)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
15. National	BP (2023)	3	School Administrators: should take reasonable steps to accommodate the tooth-brushing regimens of students with special oral health needs.
16. Oceanside	2021 (BP)	9	Personal and Community Health (health education content standards section) CHECS recommends and provides guidance for instruction on Personal and Community Health for grades K, 1, 3, 5, and 7-12. Personal health encompasses focus areas such as hygiene, sun safety, communicable diseases, dental health, and adequate sleep. Health Services Every child that enters kindergarten will be required to have a full medical history, physical examination, and dental examination with as much detail and information as outlined in the State of California Child Health and Disability Prevention (CHDP) program. Information on these programs shall be made accessible to parents upon request. Health Assessments Fully qualified and credentialed school personnel shall provide student health assessments during school hours, including health screenings for tests for vision, hearing, and scoliosis. When these screenings identify health or wellness issues, school personnel shall make the appropriate medical,

			psychological, social service, or dental referral for students through documented parent or guardian communication. Oral Health Schools should take reasonable steps to accommodate the tooth-brushing regimens of students with special oral health needs (e.g., orthodontia or high tooth decay risk).
17. Poway	BP (2018)	1	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for academic achievement, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health.
18. Ramona	BP (2019)	2	The nutrition education program may include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for academic success, weight management, disease prevention, athletic ability, and oral health.
19. SD Unified	BP (2022) Frame-work (2015)	6 7 17 19 20	Health Services: b. Optimize the early recognition of health conditions that impact learning by providing student physical health screenings and recommendations for regular physical and dental exams... Health-Promoting School Environments f. Provide reasonable accommodations for student tooth-brushing regimens and oral health. Health Education Curriculum Components of the curriculum include physical activity; safety (including protective gear, sun protection, safe storage and handling, work-related safety skills, and mass media safety); nutrition; sleep; growth, physical development and sexual health; alcohol, tobacco/nicotine and other substances; dental health; mental/emotional and social health; personal/community health; and the effects of poor nutrition and foreign substances on fetal development. Health Assessments Mandated screenings include vision, hearing and scoliosis. When there is a health or wellness discrepancy, school personnel make the appropriate medical, psychological, social service, or dental referral for students (APs 6370, 6371). Child Health and Disability Prevention Program (CHDP) and Oral Health Assessments (OHA): Every child that enters kindergarten requires a full medical history, physical examination and dental examination with as much detail and information as outlined in the State of California examination CHDP program. Information on these programs shall be made accessible to parents via www.sandi.net and in written form upon request (AP 6345). School Based Health Centers (SBHC)

		21 22	SBHCs provide medical and mental health care and offer dental services at some sites as well. Public Health Agencies: San Diego County HealthLink can link students and families to public health departments including but not limited to Child Welfare Services/Child Protection Services, California Children Services, Epidemiology, Immunizations, Disaster Preparedness, and Share the Care Oral Health Initiative. Community Based Organizations/Outside District Partnerships: They may provide a variety of direct health services and/or education including mental, physical, vision and oral health care.
20. San Dieguito	BP (2019)	1	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health. Nutrition education shall be provided as part of the health education program and, as appropriate, shall be integrated into other academic subjects in the regular educational program, before- and after-school programs, and summer learning programs.
21. San Ysidro	BP (2019)	13	The nutrition education program may include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for academic success, weight management, disease prevention, athletic ability, and oral health.
22. Solana Beach	BP (2017)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, and oral health.
23. South Bay Union	BP (2023)	1	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health. Nutrition education shall be provided as part of the health education program and, as appropriate, shall be integrated into other academic subjects in the regular educational program, before- and after-school programs, summer learning programs, and school garden programs.
24. Spencer Valley	BP (2016)	2	The nutrition education program shall include, but not be limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, healthy weight, and oral health.
25. Vista	BP (2021)	1	The nutrition education program shall include, but is not limited to, information about the benefits of healthy eating for learning, disease prevention, weight management, and oral health. Nutrition education shall be provided as part of the health education program in grades K-12 and will be age-appropriate, skill building education that focuses on behavior change and, as appropriate, shall be integrated into core academic subjects and offered through before-and after-school programs, summer learning programs, and school garden programs.

